

Farm show activities scheduled

KUTZTOWN - At the Kutztown Fair, "the Biggest Little Fair in the State" the daily farm show activities rank high in farm showing across the Commonwealth.

This year's activities begin on opening day, Monday, August 16. Then, the Eastern District Holstein Show takes place and on Tuesday, August 17, starting at 12 noon, sheep judging including sheep blocking and grooming will occur. Later on that same day the judging of sheep fitting and showmanship as well as type judging will take place. In the evening there will be a dairy fitting and showmanship contest.

On Wednesday, August 18, in addition to a tractor pulling contest, there will be a judging of Holstein dairy cattle as well as the judging of colored dairy breeds.

Thursday, August 19, sets the stage for the swine judging, the swine fitting and showmanship contest, and the judging of market swine. Later that same day will be the beef fitting and showmanship contest as well as the judging of market beef cattle.

Friday, August 20, will be the younger generation's day to perform. Starting at 9 a.m. will be the FFA dairy and livestock judging contest and at 1 p.m. will be the FFA tractor pulling contest. The evening will be devoted to the 4-H dairy judging events.

In addition to these animal husbandry contests will be the agricultural displays where both the youngsters and their parents will be competing not only for cash prizes and ribbons, but also for trophies as well.

Granges will be competing for prizes, and the judging will be based on quality, variety, and display. The Junior Grangers competition for prizes will be judged on theme, display, and quality.

People who are released from the land by an efficient agriculture do not make a nation wealthy automatically. If all the people can do is weave baskets, the people and the nation will not become affluent. They need education to become doctors, musicians, bankers, teachers, and computer technicians.
