

Master Mix Beef Starter Feeds

because travel's no fun for a steer!

Master Mix starter feeds are designed to provide the correct levels of medication from the first day your truck unloads. High palatability and carefully-balanced nutritional content help assure fast, trouble-free recovery from shipping stress.

And, because of the wide range of Master Mix beef starter feeds available, you don't have to adjust your way of doing things to our feeding program. Whether you feed in drylot or pasture, concentrate or complete feeds, top dress or grind and mix, shelled corn or corn-and-cob mix, there's a Master Mix starter program designed for you.

So make your feeders feel welcome and well; put them on a Master Mix medicated beef starter program — because travel really is no fun for a steer.

Let us show you the complete Master Mix feeding and animal health program soon!
