Commercial pesticide certification exam set

LANCASTER, Pa. - Commercial pesticide applicators will have an opportunity to take another certification exam this November at the Farm and Home Center, Lancaster, it has been announced by Arnold G. Lueck, county agricultural agent. The date is November 18, starting at 9:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. A representative of the Pa. Department of Agriculture will be on hand to supervise this written test.

There are a number of categories in which commercial applicators can be certified for the application of restricted use materials in the future. Included are agronomic crops, vegetables, ornamentals and shade trees, lawn and turf, household, fumigation, industrial and several other. Applicators must complete a basic exam plus one or more of the categories selected by the individual.

Pennsylvania law states that certification must be completed by October 1977. No fees are involved in taking the exam to qualify as a certified applicator.

Further information concerning these exams is available at the Cooperative Extension Service, 394-6851.

Library opens

QUARRYVILLE, Pa. - The formal dedication of the Southern Lancaster County Library Center will take place November 7, at 2:00 pm. The center is located at 304 St. Catherine Street, here, directly to the rear of the Borough Building. It is the newest Library Center to be added to the Lancaster County Library System.
