Seven FFA members honored

Berks County poultry group meets

By JUDY MITCHELL
Berks County Reporter

TUCKERTON Pa.—Seven area FFA members were guests of the Berks County Poultry Association at the organization's annual banquet meeting held at Wegman's Reeser Restaurant on November 11.

Association representative J. Warren Shearer of George M. Anthony and Sons presented the youth with certificate awards for outstanding poultry projects and recognized ag instructors from Conrad Weiser, Hamburg, and Kutztown Area high school for their rolls in advising and encouraging the students in the development of their projects.

Award recipients from Conrad Weiser were: Todd Lynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lynn of Bernville R1; and Ray Zimmerman, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Zimmerman of Sinking Springs R5. The Conrad Weiser students' ag advisor is Sandy L. Effert.

Hamburg awardees were: Richard and Scott Sechler, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Sechler of Strausstown; and Karl Wolf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wolf, Bernville R1. Their advisor is Paul Barnhart.

Richard Dietrich from the Kutztown Area High School accepted two awards, one for his individual project and the second for the Kutztown FFA Chapter for its chapter project. The Kutztown youth are advised by Ben Newcomer.

Rev. Dean Allen, pastor of the Boyertown UCC, was guest speaker at the poultry affair, delivering an address concerning "tools for making a living." Quoting from a statement made by the late John Wanamaker, a noted Christian leader and successful businessman, Allen advanced "the plumb of honor, the level of truth and the square of integrity, education, courtesy and mutuality" as valuable instruments in the pursuit of a better life.

Association president Lawrence Houp presided over the brief business portion of the meeting which included the election of officers and directors. Re-elected to their respective offices were: Lawrence Houp, president; Mark Hunsicker, first vice president; Eleanor Sechler, secretary; and Matthew Schuler, treasurer. Melvin Kramer was elected second vice president, replacing Ray Harmony.

Directors serving the balance of their terms are Gordon Yorgey and Hendrik Wentink. Ernest Shane was re-elected to serve another two-year term as a director, and new board members appointed were Irwin Sechler and Paul Myers.

Special reports were made by Dr. Kenneth Goodwin for Penn State University Poultry Extension and Hendrik Wentink for the Northeastern Poultry

Producers Council. Wentink, who was master of ceremonies for the evening, also reported on the activities of the Pa. Poultry Federation on behalf of Melvin Mitchell, first vice president, who was unable to attend.
