Deer season is here again. Sometimes it is difficult for me to realize the great fascination that this season brings to many people. All through the year they plan their vacations and buy equipment for their week in the woods. And I can say this, even though I've been there myself.

How well I remember leaving home very early in the morning quite a few years ago after packing sandwiches and making a thermos of coffee. My husband and I met his brother and we climbed a steep mountain near Port Clinton so that we arrived at the top about 10 minutes of seven.

And do you know what happened at two minutes of seven! I saw a big antlered deer just 30 feet away. I looked at my watch, raised my gun and decided not to shoot as it was a bit too early. Of course, all that I saw the rest of the day was group after group of doe. At least I had the thrill of seeing a buck and maybe that is what it's all about.

Today I don't even think I could climb that steep hill without resting. Maybe years take enthusiasm away from some sports.

We all hear a lot about consumer relations.

Recently, I had a personal contact in this area.

It was really a small thing. But, when I bought a tube of toothpaste, the entire top section came off the tube at the first squeeze. Then the paste had to be scooped out with the brush.

I sent a post card to the manufacturer, listing my complaint, and was surprised to get a phone call from Cincinnati telling me to return the tube and they would mail two coupons for free toothpaste. And, they did.

Ten years ago I believe such a card would have been simply thrown away.

X-mas lab held

WEST CHESTER, Pa. - The Chester County Cooperative Extension Service will be holding a "Holiday Treats 'N Sweets" workshop on December 8 from 9:30 - 11:30 a.m. at the Chester County Federal Savings and Loan Community Room, on the corner of Market and High Streets in West Chester. The process of jelly making and techniques for holiday bread making will be demonstrated. This program requires no registration and is free and open to the public.

THE GOOD WORD from the Bible

The feeding of the five thousand in a desert place near the sea is an example of the way in which Jesus quietly worked miracles. The disciples had brought word that John the Baptist had been beheaded and Jesus took them to a quiet and lonely place. But, as usual, the multitude had followed.

When Jesus was told there was not enough food to feed the people, he broke five loaves and two fishes into enough to feed the multitude - and fill twelve baskets with fragments after all had eaten.

Jesus did not seek the opportunity to perform this astounding feat. The people were there, they were hungry, and they were fed. They had sought the comfort of the Master and they were comforted. They had faith and for this they were rewarded.
