

FARM SHOW

John Holloway from West Chester showed the reserve grand champion steer on Thursday. Looking him over are his parents Mr. and Mrs. William Holloway.

Visitors to the 1977 Pennsylvania Farm Show were greeted by the Reporters and officials crouch over notebooks and tables while recording results of the Holstein show.

R.W. Decker and his Dalmatian have become almost a tradition at the Farm Show. This year, as in many previous years, he competed with his prized Belgians. Among his blue-eyed Belgians, a crowd watched and animals around Steers line the ring awaiting climaxing moments, as crowd crackles with excitement and emotion.

York County again took the county championship in the Guernsey show for both youth and open classes. Brian Lehman, Rutter, Daryl Ro Participating in the youth division were, left to right,