The kitchen in the home of the Eugene Bolts is definitely the most outstanding room of the house.

Mrs. Boll is working at her counter which features a grill.

Providing a striking contrast to the soothing kitchen is the bright and cheery family area of the kitchen. Sliding glass doors leading to a patio provide sunlight to set off the stone fireplace.

This particular portion of the house has been enjoyed by so many visitors to the Boll household that the company who put the kitchen in has included a picture of it in their brochure. The brochure also contains a picture of the bathroom, Mrs. Boll's second favorite room in the redecorated home.

The bathroom is done in shades of blue-grey with orange as the accent color. The Bolts again utilized the rustic effect that they have in their kitchen by using shingles over the washbowl and mirrors and bluish-grey poles separating the shower and toilet area from the

It's quite a buildings — our Off-Peak Wide Span. We say 'buildings' because that's what it is, two buildings in one.

The big, clear-span part is just what you need to store large, tall equipment — combines, 4-wheel drive tractors, hay balers and other super-size farm tools. The off-peak side bay gives you up to 50% more storage space to 'garage' smaller implements and vehicles — tillage tools, small tractors, trucks, cars, trailers, boats, the family camper, maybe a snowmobile or two. A big, wide sliding track door in the clear-span section lets you move big machinery in and out easily, while the smaller door on the side bay endwall provides easy in/out access for smaller equipment without 'jockeying' the bigger stuff around to do it.

If you need a new building why not get the one that gives you double utility, plus more space at less cost The Off-Peak Wide Span from Wickes Buildings — it's the best of both worlds.
