

Society

at the Farm and Home Center on April 2. Twenty-three members and 15 guests attended.

Among the guests were Lancaster County president Mrs. Robert Gregory, Mrs. Carl Diller, Lancaster County first vice president, and Mrs. Richard King, Lancaster County secretary.

Mr. Gregory announced the annual Spring rally to be held at the York Fair Grounds on May 11.

A demonstration on the use of scarfs was given by Agnes Arnold-Norman, assistant home economist, Lancaster County Extension Service.

Society 1 will sew at the Lancaster General Hospital on April 14 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The next meeting will be held on May 6. The program will consist of a Mother-Daughter banquet at the Rothsville Fire Hall at 6:15 p.m. Debbie Kreider, Lancaster County dairy princess, will provide the entertainment.

Lancaster Co. Society 6

The Lancaster County Farm Women Society 6 met in the home of Mrs. E. Musser Heisey, Mt. Joy R2 on April 2 at 2 p.m.

After a short business meeting, the guest speaker, Mrs. Richard Andrews, gave an illustrated speech on Creation and The Creator. The next meeting will be held on May 7 at the Brethren Village, Neffsville. On April 17, the Society is having a food stand at the Julius Belser sale.

Lancaster Co. Society 11

Jack Sipple, director of the Easter Seals program, was the featured speaker of Farm Women Society 11 when they met on March 31. Sipple spoke of the work being done by the Easter Seals Society and showed slides.

During the business session, it was announced that April 11 will be the date of sewing for the Cancer Society at the Quarryville Methodist Church social room.

Drawings of farm scene designs for quilt patches were distributed.

The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Betty Burkins at which time a representative of the Penn State Extension service will speak.

Lancaster Co. Society 19

On April 2 Lancaster County Farm Women Society 19 met at the home of Mary White for a program by Trooper Joseph Althoff.

Policeman showed the film, "Nobody's Victim," and gave practical suggestions to avoid being the victim of a crime.

The next meeting will be held on May 7 at the home of Vivian Warfel, 33 Blossom Hill Drive. The program will be a plant party under the direction of Carol McDonald of Columbia.

Lancaster Co. Society 26

Captain Charles McCaffery, from the City of York Bureau of Police was the guest speaker of Lancaster County Farm Women Society 26 on March 24 at the home of Mrs. David Garber.

McCaffery spoke on the life of a policeman and encouraged the ladies to help their children do their best and stand by them in whatever happens throughout their lives.

The group was reminded that on May 11 the Spring Rally will be held at the York Memorial.

The next meeting of the group will be held at the home of Annie Ginder, Elizabethtown R3. The group will go Easter carolling at the Brethren Village in Neffsville from 7 - 8 p.m.
