

THE RESURRECTION
 And, behold, there was a great earthquake for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the floor, and sat upon it. His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow. And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men. And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay. St. Matthew 28 2-6

THE GOOD WORD from the Bible

The sabbath day was ended and the first day of the week was beginning to dawn when Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came fearfully to the sepulchre to view the body of the crucified Jesus.

The earth trembled and, as if from heaven, there appeared before them an angel. They were frightened, perhaps as much as were the tomb guards who "did shake and became as dead men."

We can but imagine the reaction of the two Marys. They feared persecution for even visiting the site. The shaking of the earth was terrible. And now, so calmly, an angel sat on the stone that had been rolled back from the sepulchre door.

Yet, surely it was worth the fear and uneasiness — for the two women heard first the words that were to bring eternal hope to mankind down through the ages.

"He is not here; for He is risen, as he said."

 HELPFUL IDEAS FOR SUCCESSFUL RETIREMENT

Know Yourself

Even in retirement, the struggle to understand yourself never ends. You keep changing as you experience new things. Some researchers feel you are really four people.

There is a "real you" — a you that's hard to keep up with and really know because you change so quickly. Everything that happens to you affects this self.

The second "you" is the person you think you are — your self image. The third "you" is the person you'd like to be — your ideal self.

Finally, there is a public

"you" — the person you let other people see. You sometimes hide the real you because you can never be sure that people will really like or admire the real one.

Good mental health requires that you be comfortable with all four selves. The ideal you must not be too far above the self-image, the public image or the real you. If it is, you're usually on the defensive.

And defensive people are hiding. Rather than defend, learn to recognize what is happening. Once you see the defenses you're using, you may find a better way to be yourself.
