with the fifth-place 2-year old; Lesley King, Delta, with a second-place 2-year old owned by Patty Greek of Delta; Patty Greek holding Leonard Greek's second-place aged cow, and Leonard Greek with his third-place 2-year old.

Gitt's Nellie is named 'number one'

HARRISBURG -- Christine Gitt's Ample Rag Apple Ormsby Nellie was named grand champion Holstein at the 10th Annual Southcentral District 4-H Dairy Show, held here Tuesday at the Farm Show Building. The 18-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gitt of Littlestown, Miss Gitt is an accomplished showman. Her entries have won here on previous occasions and then went on to win state honors. She's eligible for that again next month when the Pennsylvania Junior Dairy Show gets underway.

Miss Gitt's champion cow is an 8-year old daughter of Stookeyholm Crisscross Jerico and was bred by John Mathias of Larwill, Ind.

Picked by judge George Page Jr. of Bradford County as reserve grand champion was Dale Brandt's 3½-year old daughter of Arlinda Sioux. Brandt, 18, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brandt, Hershey R1.

The junior champion of the 4-H black and white show belonged to Cumberland County Michael Dyarman, the 13-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dyarman of Shippensburg. He exhibited a senior yearling sired by Burley Marquis Astro-Twin. Capturing the reserve junior champion berth was Wayne Helman of Franklin County. The 18-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Helman, Chambersburg R2, the young Franklin Countian received the honor with a junior yearling entry sired by C Kenola Rocky.

York County, which won a major portion of the honors in the six breed, seven county show, took top honors with its county herd assemblage, which consisted of a fifth place 2-year old owned by Peter King, a second place 2-year old owned by Patty Greek, a
