

Top cow judges named at All-American

A 4-H team from Berks County and an FFA team from Cumberland Valley High School won top honors in the third annual Pennsylvania 4-H and FFA Dairy Judging Forum held Tuesday at the Pennsylvania All-American Dairy Show in Harrisburg.

The judging was limited to persons belonging to 4-H and Future Farmers of America organizations in the state. Contestants are judged on their evaluations and decisions in making their own judging events. The forum includes a quiz for contestants on dairy herd management.

In the individual judging competition, Christine Gitt of Adams County placed first in 4-H judging while Kevin Smoker of Ephrata, won top FFA honors.

Teams from Lebanon, Tioga, Washington, and Crawford Counties placed second through fifth respectively in the 4-H judging. FFA placings and teams were: second, Bradford; third, Oxford; fourth, Solanco; and fifth, Ephrata.

Members of the Berks County 4-H winners were: Steven Shaw, Wendy Shaw, and Debra Stump. The Cumberland Valley FFA team consisted of Scott Foreman, John Stover, Ron Stover and Kendra Saphore.

Rankings for individual judging in the 4-H competition were: first, Christine Gitt, Adams County; second, Dan Carr, Somerset County; third, Roy Malik, Westmoreland County; fourth, Dana Geyer, Montgomery County; and fifth, Kress Simpson, Tioga County.

Individual winners in the FFA forum were: first, Kevin Smoker, Ephrata, FFA; Larry Burkholder, Ephrata, second; third, Wanda Carter, Solanco; fourth, Ron Stover, Cumberland Valley; and fifth, Dean Jackson, Bradford FFA.
