Dairy show held at Manheim Fair

MANHEIM - Russell Kline took his nine year old Holstein cow to be named champion at the Manheim Community Fair dairy show. The animal, Fought-Land Eagle Ingra, had been named champion three times previously at the fair in past years.

A three year old Holstein exhibited by Paul Horning, Stevens R1, was named reserve champion.

In the colored breeds, Steve Hershey, Manheim R6, exhibited his three year old cow to the Brown Swiss championship; Colleen Findley, Holtwood R2 won the Ayrshire contest with an aged cow; and JoAnn Findley, New Providence R1, had the tur winner in the Jersey breed, showing a three year old.

Judge for the show was Tom Schaeffer, a Cumberland County dairyman. Complete results of the show follow:
