outstanding dairyman and conservationist, also had the high producing cow. She was Lindenhof Nance Nanette, a home-bred cow with production credits of 19,206 pounds of milk and 731 of fat.

The award for high cow for fat went to Harold Ealy of Sharpville whose 7-year old bovine, produced 16,128 pounds of milk and 856 of fat. Additional production awards were given to junior members, beginning with

Holding a trophy fit for a world champion sports team, 11-year old Barry Lehman beams proudly for having won the award which stands for Guernsey supremacy at the Farm Show.

Mary Ann Witmer of Willow Street whose 2-year old produced 14,558 and 889 pounds of milk and butterfat, respectively. The award for 3-year olds went to William Romberger's Carsals Command Dot, who produced 12,924 pounds of milk and 556 of butterfat.

Jeff Harding of Brookville had the top 4-year old - Aukema Dairy Nance Magna - who produced 13,964 pounds of milk and 575 pounds of butterfat in 283 days. James Harding captured the honor for aged cows on the strength of the 15,416 pounds of milk and 629 pounds of butterfat produced by his Beaufort Felicia.

The speaker for the event was Alexander Contract, a native of the Soviet Union who served in the Kremlin under dictator Joseph Stalin. Telling his audience about his experiences and life in the Soviet Union in general, Contract warned the Guernsey breeders that the Soviets cannot be trusted and that the communist system is evil. A former agent for the dreaded KGB of secret police, Contract came to the United States in 1949 and will soon publish a revealing book about the scheming and crimes that go on in the Kremlin.

Noting that nearly all staffers at Soviet embassies around the world are KGB agents, Contract acknowledged that his revealing messages could someday cost him his life. He had remained quiet about his knowledge until a few years ago, when he decided to tell all. Official information coming out of Russia, he says, is nothing more than propaganda, and even the film footage brought out by Western cameramen is subject to cutting by communist censors.

Looking for a good way to start a cold morning? Try waffles or pancakes with Cinnamon Honey Butter. Make this by warming one cup of strained honey with one-fourth cup (one-half stick) butter, one-fourth teaspoon cinnamon and a dash of nutmeg. Serve warm. (Yield: one and one-fourth cups).

Contract was present at numerous high-level World War II meetings, speaks in languages, and is convinced that history books aren't telling what really happened at places such as Yalta. His forthcoming book, he hopes, will set some records straight.
