Upcoming Hereford sale will have breeding stock from five states

ITHACA, N.Y. — Selected breeding stock from Polled Hereford and Hereford herds in Pennsylvania, Virginia, West Virginia, Massachusetts and New York State will be consigned to the 34th annual Spring Sale of the New York Hereford Association April 8.

The sale will be held at 1 p.m. at the Livestock Pavilion on the Cornell University Campus at Ithaca. Forty registered females, open and bred, and a select group of service age bulls have been consigned to the sale.

For the first time in many years a Hereford show will be included on the day's program with several heifer classes and two bull classes paraded before the judge beginning at 10:30 a.m. Prize ribbons will be awarded and champion and reserve champion females and bulls will be selected.

All consignments will have been inspected on the farm and no animals grading less than 12 will be entered in the show and sale.

The New York Junior Hereford Association will be in charge of the lunch stand during the show and sale.

A pre-sale dinner and social hour will be held beginning at 6:30 p.m. April 7 at the Meadow Court Motel, Ithaca.

Catalogs and information may be obtained from sale chairman Theodore Kriese, 3805, Rt. 31, Liverpool, N.Y. 13088.

The 1978-79 Membership Directory of the New York Hereford Association and New York Junior Hereford

Association will be ready for distribution at the show and sale.

The New York Hereford Association Field Day will be July 15 at the Cornell University Livestock Teaching and Research Center at Harford.

The New York Junior Hereford Association plans a Premier Show July 14 at The Livestock Pavilion on the Cornell Campus.

The New York Hereford Association is also planning an exhibit at the Empire Farm Days at Pompey.
