

Red Lion Grange meets

RED LION -- Four members of the Red Lion Grange 1781, received their Silver Star Certificates when the Grange met at their regular meeting, June 3, with Lee Burns, master, in charge:

The certificates were presented by the Pa. State Grange Treasurer, John Minor, and a white carnation was presented by Burns, representing Red Lion Grange.

Those receiving certificates were: Cora Keiser, Dean Stabley, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Warner. Also recognized, and presented a white carnation was Walter Stein, a charter member of Red Lion Grange with Fifty-nine years of Membership, and Beuhla Saylor with Sixty-nine years of Membership in the Grange. Mrs. Saylor transferred to Red Lion Grange in 1927 from Hopewell Grange.

Twenty other members, of the fifty attending the meeting, have held grange membership for twenty-five or more years.

The next regular meeting will be June 17 at 8 p.m.

The Grange will sell Bar-B-Qued chicken on June 24, beginning at 10:30 a.m. at the Grange Hall.

process of estate planning. Very often it's the wife who is left to settle the husband's estate.

Baugh says, "Estate planning makes an orderly transferral of property from one generation to the next." Due to the new tax laws and the inflated value of land, cattle and other property, it takes more than a will to smoothly administer an estate. Estate planning let's man be the boss instead of being ruled by inflationary land values. Baugh continues, "Estate planning allows a person to outline his intentions for the future ownership of the farm and cattle and enables these intentions to be carried out."

Baugh received his Bachelor of Science degree in business administration from the University of Arkansas, his Master of Science degree from the University of Colorado, and the chartered life underwriter designation from the American College. Baugh has served as guest lecturer on estate planning at three major universities. He was chairman of the 1977 National Inter-Professional Estate Planning Seminars. A popular lecturer and author, Baugh is best known for his creative approaches to practical estate planning.
