

Deb Hershberger of Quarryville was top showman in the junior division of the 4-H Holstein Show.

Joyce Stoltzfus, Lancaster County Dairy Princess, had the reserve grand champion female in last week's Lancaster District Holstein Show. The stylish champion is a 3-year old, classified VG-87, with a projected lactation of 19,000 pounds of milk and 800 of butterfat.

There was a lot of activity last week in the show ring of the Solanco Fairgrounds, Quarryville. Lancaster County 4-H's held their annual show, with five breeds represented. Lancaster County 4-H's held their annual show, with five breeds represented. Lancaster County 4-H's held their annual show, with five breeds represented. Lancaster County 4-H's held their annual show, with five breeds represented.

Paul Horning, Stevens, exhibited the junior champion of the Lancaster District Holstein show.

Grand champion for the third time in four tries at the Lancaster District Holstein Show, held last week in Quarryville, was Andfar Astronaut Cinderella, owned by Robert Kuuffman of Elizabethtown. The 6-year old Holstein was reserve grand champion at the show a year ago.

*1978
Lancaster
Dairy Shows
reviewed
in pictures*

Phil and Neal Crouse, champion showmanship title winners from Stevens, picked up blue ribbons with these entries.

Peach Bottom's exhibitor of champion Ayrshires, Karen Schmuck, gets a helping hand from visiting Dutch student Gerben DeBoer.

Michael and Gary learned how to exhibit.