

Winners named at Carlisle beef show

CARLISLE — The grand champion steer at the Carlisle Fair's 4-H and FFA Steer show was shown by Angela Fought, Carlisle R6. The young lady showed a 900 pound animal in the mediumweight class to win.

The reserve grand champion steer was shown by Cheryl Fought, Carlisle, who is a cousin to the grand champion winner. Her steer came from the heavyweight division, and weighed 940 pounds.

In the lightweight class, Kim Brackbill's 785 pound steer took the lightweight championship. The Mechanicsburg R2 4-H'er shared the limelight with her sister, Bonnie Brackbill, who showed the lightweight reserve champion steer. That animal weighed 765 pounds.

In the mediumweight class, the reserve champion under Angela Fought was Roxanne Leib, Mechanicsburg R2, who showed a steer weighing 890 pounds.

The reserve champion in the heavyweight classes was shown by Chris Hopple, Mechanicsburg R2, whose steer weighed 1005 pounds.

Three FFA'ers competed in their own division, with Harold Leib, Mechanicsburg R2, placing first, Paula Deitch, Mechanicsburg R2, taking second, and Tammy Hoy Bucher, Carlisle R6, named third.

Three separate fitting and showing contests were held also. First place in the junior contest went to Ron Kimmel, Shiremanstown, with David Barrick, Carlisle R5, placing second, and Allyson Sheaffer, Carlisle, taking third.

Karen Fought was named the first place intermediate fitter and shower. Second place in that division was won by Chris Hopple, and Kim Brackbill was third.

In the senior division, Cheryl Fought took the top position, followed by Roxanne Leib second, and Harold Leib, third.

Judge for the show was Don Sunday, York.

Angela Fought's steer was judged grand champion of the 1978 Carlisle Fair by Don Sunday of York. The Farm Credit Association trophy was presented by Walter Loy.

Grange royalty chosen

PERRY VALLEY — The Eighth Annual Region G Conference was held August 6, at the Perry Valley Grange Hall, Perry County. More than eighty attended the conference, with all the Pomona Granges of the Region represented.

Shirley Boldin, Region G Youth Chairman, was in charge of the opening session. Two workshops were held. They were "Deaf Awareness" and "Wildlife". While the workshops were being held for others, Gladys Sheffer, Region G Lecturer's Committee Member, met with the Lecturers in attendance to discuss the wind-up of Lecturer's programs for 1978, and to inform the Lecturers of what to expect in 1979.

A bus tour was taken in the late afternoon to the Little Buffalo State Park, where members had a chance to tour the tavern, grist mill and cross the covered bridge. Following the tour, a chicken bar-b-que supper was served.

The cake baking contest was won by Mrs. Lynn Frick, Cumberland County, for her white cake, and by Jeanne Snyder, Perry County, for her chocolate. Each won $5.

The highlight of the day was the choosing of the new prince, princess and young married couple for Region G Chosen for Prince was James Snyder, York County, son of the Penna. State grange master and Mrs. Snyder. The tiel of Princess was won by Ruth Walters, Centre County. Mr. and Mrs. Brian Woolsey was chosen Young Married Couple. They are members of Biglerville Grange, Adams County.

Special evening Gospel Music was presented by the "Chapelaes" of Dauphin County, under the direction of Galen Deibler.

A National Highway Traffic Safety Administration report estimates that 200,000 lives have been saved since the Safety Act of 1966, which began the chain of safety improvements in our passenger cars.
