In the Junior Queen contest, Gretchen Doner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Doner, New Providence R2, was named winner. Gretchen represented the Rough Riders 4-H Club, and said she was very "happy and surprised." Lisa King, 1977 Junior Queen crowned her successor.

Named First Alternate in the Senior Queen contest was Carol Stinson, representing the Rough Riders 4-H Club. Carol is the daughter of The Rev. and Mrs. Melvin Stinson, Strasburg R1. Jenny Stauffer, presenting the Lititz-Manheim Swift Stitches 4-H Club was named first Alternate Junior 4-H Queen. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Stauffer, 237 Landis Valley Road, Lancaster.

In an onstage interview by Mistress of Ceremonies Roxanne Stein, WGAL-TV News, Suzy was asked to tell how she would explain 4-H to someone else. She said, "I would tell them it is a great organization, and how it has helped me grow. It helped me gain experience in many areas and meet new people and make many new friends. It's made me a better person and helps me strive for the important things."

Gretchen was asked what she enjoyed most about 4-H, and she responded by saying she liked helping others through a project her club has which teaches handicapped children to ride horses.

Other contestants in the junior contest were: Gayle Weaver, Brickerville Community 4-H Club; Michelle Dean, Red Rose Beef and Sheep Club; and Edith Yoder, Pequea Valley 4-H Cooking and Sewing Club.
