GOOD LUNCH

Berks County 4-H achievements noted

READING — Forty-two 4-H Club members from Berks County took part in the Pennsylvania State 4-H Achievement Days, held last month at the Pennsylvania State University campus. They competed with some 1800 other boys and girls from throughout the Commonwealth in judging, demonstrations, public speaking, and consumer education events.

Awards to Berks County 4-H'ers were announced last week and are as follows:
The Consumerama Team, composed of Dorene Hertzog, Kutztown; Wade Lee, Reading; Lynda Reppert, Reading; and Karen Sattazahn, Womelsdorf, won a blue ribbon.

Dairy judging team members Wendy and Steve Shaw of Oley, Kevin Sattazahn of Womelsdorf and Debbie Stump of Bernville combined for a seventh place in team standings. Miss Shaw and Sattazahn both earned red ribbons for their efforts. In the Dairy Bowl, Karen Kniss of Oley and Tina Neufeld of Hamburg earned red ribbons.

Paulette Staudt, a Fooderama contestant from Mohnton, captured a fourth place in individual competition, thereby winning a blue ribbon. Teammate Cheryl Clayton of Birdsboro won a red ribbon in the same contest.

In demonstrations,

Danielle Yoder of Hamburg and Larry Stratton of Kutztown both won red ribbons. The respective titles of their speeches was "Sharing is Caring" and "Look, it's Magic." A speech given by Steve Imes of Fleetwood, entitled "Agriculture, the Number One Growing Industry in the U.S." won a red ribbon also.

Broiler placements up

HARRISBURG -- Placements of broiler chicks in the Commonwealth for the week ending August 19 were 27 per cent above the same week a year earlier, according to the Crop Reporting Service. The placements were at 1,998,000 two per cent below the previous week. Average placements in the past nine weeks were 16 per cent above the same week a year earlier.

Placements in the 21 key poultry producing states were 68 196,000. This is about the same as the previous week but ten per cent more than the same week a year earlier. Average placements in the 21 states during the past nine weeks were about the same as the previous week but ten per cent more than the same week a year earlier.

The number of broiler-fryers slaughtered in Pennsylvania under federal inspection during the week ending August 9, were 1,785,000, with an average weight of 4.18 pounds.

Square dance set

STRASBURG — The First National Bank of Strasburg will sponsor a free Country-Western concert and Square Dance at its Buck Office on September 23, 1978. The office is located at the intersection of route 272 and 372, RD 1, Quarryville, PA.

The concert will feature The High Ridge Mountain Boys and the square dance
