

Solanco encourages youth contests

QUARRYVILLE — To encourage youth participation in the Solanco Fair, special prizes have been provided for youth contests. They will be awarded to individuals having the highest score in the Rural Youth Contest. The high individual will have a choice of awards and will continue in succession until all of the prizes have been awarded. The prizes are as follows:

A cash award to be used towards the purchase of a feeder steer.

A purebred Holstein heifer calf donated by Mr. and Mrs. James L. Kreider.

A trip to the National FFA Convention, sponsored by Chink Hassler.

Two feeder pigs donated by the Solanco FFA. A cedar chest.

A portable Singer sewing machine or Craftsman toolbox and tools.

An AM-FM portable radio or digital clock radio.

A Channelmaster portable tape cassette player.

A Channelmaster 8-track or cassette car player.

The contest is open to any boy or girl who has not yet reached his or her 19th birthday and who is living in the Solanco School District, unless otherwise approved by the Rural Youth Contest chairman. The rules and regulations listed in the Solanco Fair premium book shall apply. Individuals making entries should make sure the committee chairman designates that their exhibits are for the Rural Youth Contest. Each entry must be locally grown, selected, and prepared by the exhibitor. All entries should be of good quality and properly prepared for the exhibit. Entries other than livestock may not be purchased for the purpose of showing. For further details, please contact committee chairman Arba Henry, 5 West Fourth Street, Quarryville.

Carefully groomed cattle rest in the comfortable facilities at the Solanco Fair, Lancaster County's largest. The area prides itself on having a strictly agricultural exhibition.
