

Waltemyer, Wojton win state 4-H awards

UNIVERSITY PARK — Cindy Waltemyer and Rita Wojton, from Montgomery County, who have compiled outstanding records in 4-H work, have been named state contest winners in the 1978 4-H National Awards Program.

Cindy Waltemyer, 17, of Collegeville, was state winner in agriculture; and Rita Wojton, 18, Trappe, was winner in the personal development contest.

Both will receive expense-paid trips to National 4-H Congress in Chicago, November 26 to 30.

Support of the agriculture project is provided by International Harvester Company.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Waltemyer, Cindy Waltemyer is a freshman at Virginia Polytechnic Institute, majoring in dairy science. She has been a 4-H member for nine years.

A member of the Keystone 4-H Dairy, Montgomery County Livestock, and Trappe Community 4-H Clubs, she served as vice president, news reporter, and secretary. She also assisted with club activities and events as a teen leader.

The state agriculture contest winner completed projects in dairy, sheep, beef, swine, careers, and teen leadership.

Locally, she took part in the 4-H fair, dairy judging team, dairy bowl team, teen ambassador program, and achievement night.

Cindy also participated in the Southeastern 4-H District Dairy Show, Regional 4-H Beef Show and Sale, State 4-

Cindy Waltemyer

H Achievement Days, Pennsylvania Junior Dairy Show, Pennsylvania 4-H Leadership Congress, Farm Show, and Citizenship Short Course.

She was selected as Montgomery County's Outstanding 4-H Girl, and was named the outstanding 4-H member entering dairy science at VPI for which she received a $400 scholarship.

Rita Wojton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wojton; and a freshman at Immaculata College, majoring in music therapy. She has been a 4-H member for five years.

A member of four Montgomery County 4-H Clubs, Rita served as president, vice president, secretary, and teen leader.

The state personal development contest winner completed projects in sewing, teen leadership, cooking, wildlife conservation, automotive care and maintenance, clothing, macrame, and interior decorating.

In Montgomery County, she took part in the county 4-H fair, demonstration night, achievement night, and camp.

She also participated in the Regional 4-H Teen Leaders Retreat, Lehigh Valley 4-H Cavy Show, Pennsylvania Association of Farmer Cooperatives One-Day Institute, Pennsylvania 4-H Leadership congress, State 4-H Achievement

Days, State 4-H Capital Days, and Citizenship Short Course.

She was a county 4-H dress revue winner, is listed in

Brockett wins ag engineer award

UNIVERSITY PARK — Betty L. Brockett, a third year student in agricultural engineering at Penn State, has received the 1978 John G. Sutton Memorial Award, from the American Society of Agricultural Engineers.

The award, given to Miss Brockett as the "Student Agricultural Engineer of the Year," is presented annually to the outstanding third year student in agricultural engineering in the United States. Miss Brockett received the award recently in ceremonies at Penn State. The award consists of a plaque, cash and a travel allowance for the student to attend an ASAE national meeting. Another plaque is given to the agricultural engineering department which helped guide and develop the winning student.

Miss Brockett, the second woman to receive the award in its ten-year history, was selected for her excellence in scholarship, her participation in student and professional development organizations, and her outstanding character.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Brockett, Lewistown R4.
