

Charles wins Lampeter hog show for second time

By KENDACE BORRY
LAMPETER — For the second year in a row, Shawn Charles, Lancaster R2, won the grand championship in the Lampeter Fair market hog show. And this year he went one better. He also showed the reserve grand champion hog.
 The grand champion pig had been named champion in the light heavyweight class. His champion lightweight was the reserve grand champion.

 The grand champion hog weighed 220 pounds and was a purebred Duroc Barrow. The reserve champion was also a Duroc, weighing 197 pounds.
 Shawn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Charles and a freshman at Penn Manor involved in the FFA program.
 The mediumweight champion hog was shown by Tim Hess, Lancaster R2; and the champion heavyweight hog was exhibited by Charles Brown. Charles Brown also showed the reserve champion heavyweight hog.

 The reserve champion lightweight hog was shown by Tim Hess; the reserve champion mediumweight animal was exhibited by Richard Haines, Columbia R3. Karen Long, Willow Street R1, showed the reserve champion light heavyweight.

 In the pair class, Fred Charles, the son of H. Melvin Charles, Washington Boro R1, won the championship. This, his first championship, was won with crossbred hogs, being of Hampshire-

Yorkshire-Duroc Blood, and averaging 229 pounds. The 17 year old youth is senior at Penn Manor.
 Don Brubaker, 17, showed the reserve champion pair. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brubaker, Strasburg R1, and showed Yorkshire-Landrace crossbreds averaging 208 pounds.

Named junior showman at the hog show was Jim Harnish, while senior showman was Nelson Breneman.
 Judge for the hog show was Mark Nestleroth, Manheim R5.

AGRISPONTM

TOTALLY SAFE
LOW COST

NOW, OCTOBER, NOVEMBER, DECEMBER, 1978 is the time to get ready for spring planting and a harvest of healthier, improved yields of 1979 crops!

Apply AGRISPON as soon as crops are harvested this fall so AGRISPON can go to work all during the winter months.

- Putting life back into the soil.
- Fixing nitrogen.
- Increasing availability of natural minerals in soil.
- Improving the water holding capacity of soil.

PEPPER PLANTS, LEHIGH COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA 1978

Root systems like these are no accident with AGRISPON - Result: Stronger, healthier plants, faster maturity, greater yields, better tasting peppers. The same results are reported for corn, beans, soybeans and canteloupes in North East United States for 1978.

Every farmer, nurseryman, home gardener knows Yields are limited by Plant Stress caused by:

- Herbicides
- Pesticides
- Acid Forming Fertilizers
- Inadequate Water-Holding Capacity
- Anhyorous Ammonia
- Incorrect Fertilization
- Low Microbial Populations

The answer is a balanced farming program built around AGRISPON:

- a) Start with soil test.
- b) Where possible replace deficient elements with Natural or Chelated minerals.
- c) Limit use of herbicides and Pesticides.
- d) Check calcium and phosphate levels.
- e) Apply AGRISPON twice yearly.

Distributors and Dealerships are available in selected areas in the following states: Pennsylvania, Maryland, New York, New Jersey, Virginia, West Virginia, Ohio, Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Delaware, Indiana, and Michigan.
