

Lampeter Fair sheep show has many winners

By KENDACE BORRY
LAMPETER — Wayne Hess, Conestoga R1, showed his market lamb at the Lampeter Fair on Wednesday to be picked first in its class over the other 15 exhibitors. This was the Penn Manor sophomore's first champion. A member of the FFA where he attends school, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Abram Hess.

In the sheep breed classes, Tom Muller dominated the Hampshire division, showing both the champion ram and the champion ewe, as well as the reserve champion ram. His brother

Bob Muller, had the reserve champion ewe.

Billy MacCauley, Atglen R2, had the champion Shropshire ewe as well as the champion Suffolk ram and champion Suffolk ewe. The champion and reserve champion Shropshire ram was shown by Mark Ebaugh, Delta R2. The reserve champion ewe was shown by Ernest Barrett, Cochranville R1, in the Shropshire class.

The reserve champion Suffolk ram was shown by Linda Ebaugh, Delta R2. Jim Stauffer, Lancaster R2, showed the reserve champion Suffolk ewe.

In the Southdown division, Gerald Rohrer, Quarryville R1, had the champion ram and the reserve champion ram exhibits. Nanette Musser, Lancaster, showed the champion Southdown ewe while Barbara Rohrer, sister to Gerald, showed the reserve champion.

In the sheep showmanship and fitting competitions, Billy MacCauley won both the senior fitting and showmanship trophies. Jim Stauffer was first in the junior showmanship and Gerald Rohrer captured the junior fitting contest.

Judge for the show was Clyde Brubaker, Lancaster. Results of the sheep show follow:

TALK AND SLIDE PRESENTATION BY DONALD L. SCHREIFER

The man who is 25 years ahead of his time in practical and profitable agriculture.

ADVANCED AG is a consulting service which makes specific recommendations for fertilization based on a sophisticated "Albrecht Formula" soil test. We advise clients of optimum tillage practices, working with existing tools or recommending alternative implements. We supply sophisticated crop catalysts and trace mineral fertilizers for specific cases. Increase your Net Profit through integrated management of tillage and fertility. Learn how and why the use or misuse of different tillage tools can affect the profit or loss of your farm. Each tool has its own proper timing. Properly managed soil is more productive of quality produce, more independent of weather extremes, earlier and easier to work, requires less fertilizer - more profitable. Get better control of your farming enterprise.
