

Risser named state 4-H scholarship winner

UNIVERSITY PARK - Philip E. Risser, 18, Leola R1, who has compiled an outstanding record in 4-H work, was named recently state winner of an agribusiness careers scholarship in the 1978 4-H National Awards Program.

Philip's 4-H records will be entered in national competition with winners to be announced in late November. He will receive a $400 college scholarship and compete for a trip to National 4-H Congress in Chicago, November 26 to 30

Support of the agribusiness careers scholarship program is provided by DeKalb Agricultural Research, Inc.

Phil Risser

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen K. Risser, he has been a 4-H member for nine years. He is a freshman at Penn State, majoring in agricultural engineering.

A member of three Lancaster County 4-H Clubs, he served as president, treasurer, news reporter, and game leader. He also assisted with club activities and events as a teen leader.

The scholarship winner completed projects in dairy, swine, sweet corn, tractor maintenance, handyman, geology, and teen leadership

Commenting on the values of the educational youth program, Philip said: "4-H has taught me to accept responsibility, enjoy achievements, and accept failures. It also has given me an opportunity to participate in many programs and activities."

Locally, he took part in the 4-H achievement day, exchange program, roundup, demonstration day, and public speaking contest.

Philip also participated in the Regional 4-H Teen Leaders Retreat, Regional 4-H Demonstration Day, State 4-H Achievement Days, State 4-H Capital Days, Pennsylvania 4-H Leadership Congress, and Citizenship Short Course.

He was the high individual in potato judging in the state contest held as part of the 1978 State Farm Show.

4-H officers elected

JEFFERSON — The Jefferson 4-H Club held their meeting on September 19, at the Jefferson Fire Hall. An election of officers was held.

Officers for next year are president, Charla Janney; vice president, Jon Miller; secretary, Susan Janney; assistant secretary, Marcia Lecrone; newsreporter, Dwayne Gracey, assistant treasurer, Christine Shive; historian, Denise DePalmer, and song and game learners, Kelly Miller and Isabele Lecrone.

Reports were given. King and queen representatives from the club will be Ann and Jon Miller.

The next meeting of the group will be October 21 at the screaming barn in Lancaster County.

"4-H has given me more responsibility, self-confidence, and pride. It also has given me an education I otherwise could not have received," he points out.

Christy, who won the State 4-H Public Speaking Contest at Penn State in August, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waltersdorff.

A freshman at the Penn State York Campus, majoring in parks and recreation, she has been a 4-H member for six years.

She also participated in the Regional 4-H Teen Leaders Retreat, District 4-H Camp, Regional 4-H Demonstration Day, State 4-H Leadership Congress, State 4-H Achievement Days, and Citizenship Short Course.

Christy was advisor to the Pennsylvania 4-H Leadership Congress at Penn State and was first alternate for the York Fair Award.

"The 4-H program has given me self-respect, a good opinion of myself, and helped me to get along with others," Christy says.

A member of five York County 4-H Clubs, she served as president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and teen leader.

The state public speaking contest winner completed projects in lambs, dairy goats, wildlife conservation, veterinary science, and teen leadership.

In York County, Christy took part in the 4-H day camp, fashion revue, exchange program, Rural Life Sunday, demonstration day, and officers training.
