Lebanon Holstein Club honors its youth

The Lebanon County Holstein Club honored some of its younger members this week during their annual banquet, held at Mount Zion. Among the honorees were, left to right, Deborah Lentz, Gary Lentz, Patrick Arnold, Greg Lentz, Alan Hostetter, and Jane Bomgardner. All were honored for having high production records on their cows. Also honored, but not present for the banquet and awards presentations was David Bomgardner, whose animals placed first in the aged cow class for both milk and butterfat. Miss Bomgardner and Kirby Horst, (not pictured) are competing for Outstanding Junior Holstein Member honors in a state-wide contest.

MEAT BIRDS OR EGGS...

No matter which is your livelihood, Agway people are ready to help you in every phase of your operation.

Here's how:

Feeding for profit

Shell Firm Feeds and the Daily Nutrient Intake Program are two major Agway contributions to more profitable poultry enterprises. Agway feed researchers and flock nutritionists are continually seeking even better feeds and feeding programs.

Egg marketing

Agway marketing experts can help you locate profitable markets for your products.

Building design and construction

Agway poultry facilities are designed and built to provide efficient use of space and labor and to accommodate modern automated equipment.

Facility leasing

There's no need to tie up your capital in order to expand or modernize. Under certain conditions, there are significant advantages in leasing facilities and equipment through Telmark.

Financial help

Qualified poultrymen can obtain credit from Agway to assist in raising broilers or layers.

Research and development

Feeds and feeding programs, new ideas in housing and egg handling, new techniques in flock health maintenance. Agway continually searches for better ways to lower costs and increase profits.

Business Management

While not yet available in all communities, Agway farm consultants are supplying advice to farmers, helping them set up record-keeping systems and preparing tax returns.

Your Agway Poultry Enterprise Serviceperson

Your access to the team that keeps your operation running smoothly and profitably.
