

York Co. Farm Women hold annual convention

YORK - York County's 4-H center again became the beneficiary of fund raising efforts staged this year by the York County Farm Women Societies.

During the Society's county convention last week at St. Matthew Lutheran Church, Extension 4-H specialist Beth Hershey accepted a check for $2000 to be used toward improvements at the Center near Bair.

While the funds were not specified for a particular project, ongoing contributions by the Farm Women have provided 95 per cent of the institution-style stainless steel equipment in the Center's large and efficient kitchen area.

County president Pat Sechrist, York Haven, chaired the morning business session, highlighted by the election of a new county treasurer. Sarah Richardson, representing Society 20 of Shrewsbury,
