

Denton named outstanding 4-H alumni

Lancaster Farming, Saturday, December 9, 1978—131

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — What do the superintendent of the Maryland Schools for the Deaf and one of the nation's best-known major league baseball catchers have in common?

Chicago, they were among eight adults feted during the fifty-seventh annual National 4-H Congress as national winners in the 4-H alumni recognition program for 1978.

Well, November 30, in The Maryland school superintendent is Dr. David M. Denton of Frederick, and the baseball player is Johnny Bench of the Cincinnati Reds. As former 4-H members in their younger days, both were cited for outstanding civic accomplishment, continuing interest in the 4-H program, exhibiting evidence of 4-H training and ideals, and success in their chosen occupations.

Dr. Denton is the twelfth Maryland resident or native to receive national honors since the 4-H alumni recognition program began in 1953. Like a few of his predecessors, he actually spend his 4-H days growing up in another state. In his case it was North Carolina.

As a boy, he was a 4-H member for six years in Graham County, N.C. He showed registered Jersey dairy cattle, took part in 4-H leadership and gardening projects and attended 4-H camp

Here in Maryland, Dr. Denton was instrumental in starting a 4-H club at the Frederick campus of the Maryland Schools for the Deaf. Several County wide 4-H activities are held each year at that location.

His wife, the former Margaret West, is an elementary school teacher. They have two children, David, a student at Frederick Community College, and Mary, a sophomore at Governor Thomas Johnson high school in Frederick.

Fire technology meeting slated

SCHUYLKILL HAVEN - There will be a seminar dealing with the aspects of fire technology on Thursday, December 14, 1978, according to John Philapavage, Schuylkill County Community Resource Development assistant with the Schuylkill County Cooperative Extension Service. It is open to all fire company personnel, municipal officials, and interested citizens.

The speaker for the meeting will be William Arble, technical specialist, for the Pennsylvania Technical Assistance Program (PennTAP). He has been with PennTAP for seven years, working in the area of fire prevention technology and control, in the public and private sector.

The fire technology meeting will start at 7:30 p.m. and will be held in Room C-202 at the Schuylkill Campus of The Pennsylvania State University. The meeting is free of charge; however, registration is desirable. To do this, please call the Schuylkill County Cooperative Extension Service at 717-385-3431, or write to P.O. Box 250, Schuylkill Haven, Pa, 17972.
