

Keystone Degree

MARK SCHOENHOLTZ
W.B. Saul

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schoenholtz, Philadelphia, Mark has worked for several people, doing outside work around their homes.

He has received many awards from the Pa. Horticultural Society. He is involved with his own plant and flower shop, which he financed himself.

After high school, he intends to enter Penn State, taking courses in retail floristry, landscaping, and business administration, working towards his goal of having a larger store.

ROBERT MOOS

Robert Moos, the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Calaleri, Philadelphia, began his occupational program in 1975 when he worked for the Cavaleri Construction Landscaping Co. He has also worked on a dairy farm and done some freelancing as a landscaper.

Moos has held the offices of president, vice president, and sentinel delegate in his chapter.

He has placed in many contests including interview, salesmanship, dairy products, and land judging and has participated in activities such as public speaking, parliamentary procedure, and the debating team.

Robert's future plans include attending Penn State and majoring in landscape architecture. He hopes to start his own landscape firm.

HOYT EMMONS
W.B. Saul

Hoyt Emmons is president of the Philadelphia Area of the FFA and the W.B. Saul High School of Agricultural Science's Student Council.

He has a background in many agricultural fields as shown in his work experience programs. Two Summers were spent working for the Philadelphia Zoo.

Being employed by the Pennsylvania Horticulture Society, Hoyt has worked at two Philadelphia flower shows and two harvest shows.

He has also worked for the Womens S.P.C.A., and has done many jobs dealing with gardening and care of office plants.

An active member of the FFA, Hoyt has won many awards that include Star Chapter Farmer, leadership pin, salesmanship, interview, demonstration, FFA knowledge test, dairy judging, quiz bowl, showcase, dairy products, and public speaking. He has been past chapter reporter, ag. class treasurer, and served on many committees.

He plans to run for state FFA officer and intends to continue his education in agriculture at college.

Hoyt is the son of Mr. & Mrs. Wesley Emmons, Philadelphia.

Montgomery County

Montgomery Countians who will receive their Keystone Degree next week are Daniel Solt of Barto, a student at the Western Montgomery County Vocational Technical School, and Diane Liiro of Nazareth, a student at the Eastern Montgomery County Vocational Technical School.
