

Tallow prices up

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Tallow prices, although up because of higher beef prices, are also getting a boost because of the rising cost of petroleum. USDA indicates that much of the tallow is again finding its way into soaps and detergents, which are also made with petroleum. It is estimated that in 1944, 1.5 billion pounds of inedible tallow and grease helped produce 29 pounds of soap for every person in the country, but by 1973 had dropped to a total of just over a half billion pounds, or 3.5 pounds per capita.

The other team members were Laurie Dobrosky, Brian Utz, and Bill Wise.

The York County 4-H Meats team was first place in the State Achievement Days and fourth at the National contest with Lisa Dobrosky being high individual in both contests. The other team members were Chris Sunday, Brenda Walter, and Steve Trostle.

The Livestock team was first in the state with Brenda Werner being high individual. The team was first at Richmond, Va. and fourth at the Eastern Nationals with 14 teams competing. The team was first at Keystone with Tim Beck being second high individual. The team participated at the North American Livestock Exposition, Louisville, Ky. There were 33 states with

Radio helps animals

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Radio telemetry may sound like it has nothing to do with National Wildlife Week's 1979 theme, "Conserve Our Wildlife," but it does. Telemetry—keeping track of "tagged" animals by means of tiny radio transmitters—is one of many techniques used in wildlife management to help conserve the nation's dwindling wildlife population.

York County placing third—only nine points from first place with Minnesota and Kansas tied for first place. Brenda Werner was fifth high individual in the total contest. The other team members were Tim Beck, Harris Wright, and David Wise. John Wildisin, manager of Eastern National Livestock Exposition, presented Brenda Werner with a $1000 check for winning the 1978 Stockman of the Year Contest at the Eastern National Livestock Exposition.

William Holloway, presented a $100 savings bonds to Brenda Werner for placing fifth at the National Livestock Judging Contest. The bond was donated by Elanco Products, Company.

Friends of 4-H Certificates were presented to all the firms, farms, or families who held judging practice for the meats and livestock teams.

Charles Sunday was presented with the Outstanding Service Award from the 4-H Beef Club. He has been an active leader for 15 years. Mr. Sunday has held many 4-H activities at his farm for the members of the club. He helped organize the Cattleman's Association and is presently a director of the South Central Pennsylvania Cattleman's Association. Mr. and Mrs. Sunday have nine children who have all been active in the 4-H Beef Program.

The entertainment for the banquet was magician Don Young, "The Esorcist". Approximately 350 people attended the banquet.

Charles Sunday was chosen York County Beef Club's outstanding service award winner.
