

ACA

Distribution will be made through ACA members in local communities all across the country.

ACA, which is a non-profit and non-partisan organization headquartered in Washington, D.C. plans to complete nationwide tabulation and analysis of the survey later this year. The results will be presented early next year to top decision-makers in Washington including the President, Secretary of Agriculture and key Congressional leaders.

In addition to the survey, the program offers a wide range of materials, including fact cards, bumper stickers and posters all emphasizing the "Heart-beat" theme. The "Heart-beat" message is dramatized visually by a symbol depicting an electrocardiogram with a farm image.

"We are proud to present a united approach in communicating the tremendous success story that modern agriculture has to tell," Joufflas said. "We firmly believe that we can speak a powerful message with a positive voice."

ACA was founded in 1973 and conducts a wide range of program designed to in-

Summer activity seminar set

WEST CHESTER - The Chester County Extension Service of the Pennsylvania State University will offer a working "Planning Summer Leisure Activities" on Wednesday, April 11, from 9:30-11 a.m. at the Extension Office, 235 W. Market St., West Chester. Register is required by April 9.

The questions to be discussed are: What to consider when planning leisure activities? - Where to go? - What is the Cost? - and What to do?

The creative crafts of coiling and sand art will be demonstrated. To be included in this activity bring: 40 inches of cotton clothesline, yarn, needle with large eye for yarn and scissors.

For further information contact Trudy Dougherty, Extension Home Economist at the Extension office or call 215-696-3500.
