

All the ribbons of 4-H livestock bought by Danny George are hung in his market, George's Foodliner, Bethlehem. Mounted steer heads, steer and lamb hides, pictures and banners cover the walls.

Going, going...sold! to Danny George

Danny George carves a rump from one of the champion 4-H steers he purchased. Approximately 200 4-H members and parents attended the banquet he held on January 25th.

By JOAN LIESAU
 BETHLEHEM — Twenty-six years ago a man began peddling meat door to door. As the years went by he expanded to what is now called George's Foodliner and across the street is Danny's Restaurant. What is so special about this self made man? His name is Danny George and some people call him one of the best supporters of 4-H livestock in Pennsylvania. In 1959, Danny bought his first champion at Lehigh County Fair. Then,

"someone asked if I'd like to go to the Farm Show" he reflected, "and I kept going year after year."
 "There is no one who has done more in Pennsylvania to support the 4-H livestock sales by buying livestock and much more than champions, then Danny George," stated David Dunbar, Lehigh County agent. "He is an extremely important buyer at the junior livestock sales and at the Pennsylvania Farm
