

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Seipt and sons Don and Doug won the big banners for the first time this week. Seipt hasn't missed the show since it was first organized in the early 1950's and has won the Best Three Females class on many occasions, including this year. They took seven animals to 1979 Championship show.

The grand champion Holstein at the 1979 Eastern Pennsylvania Championship Holstein Show was shown by Lime Rock Farms, owned by Roy Miller, left. At the halter is a nephew, Carl Weaver.

The blue ribbons were spread around pretty much among the 80 exhibitors. Out of the 14 classes, only a few breeders repeated as first place winners. Seipt won the senior 2-year old, aged cow, and Best Three Females classes. Roy Miller topped the 3-year old field and had the first-place dairy herd. Donald Hostetter came out on top in the dry 3-4 year old class and the Produce of Dam group.
