All, there were ten represented in the contest, the widest distribution of competitions. Grand champion in the barrow show was displayed by Paul Forrester from Front Royal, Virginia.

The champion pair came from Stewartstown with John Strawbridge. The reserve pair was shown by another Pennsylvanian, Darryl Sheiss of Chambersburg.

Strawbridge repeated his championship performance in the production tested barrow show with another grand champion pair.

Reserve honors in that category went to Merle Hess of Smithburg, Md., who also captured the top prize in the individual showings.

Reserve individual in the production show was an animal owned by George Shue of Brodbeck.

In the 4-H and FFA market lamb show, a young lady named Kelly George took the grand champion ribbon with a 135-lb. Suffolk.

Sarah Brubaker, Lancaster, took reserve honors in the lamb show with a 120-lb. Hampshire.
