

Sports, outdoor exhibit set for Farm Show

HARRISBURG — The 25th annual edition of the Eastern Sports and Outdoor Show is scheduled for an eight-day run, Saturday, February 2 through Saturday, February 9 at the Pennsylvania State Farm Show Building.

According to Show Director Richard Libertine, this year's exposition will be even larger than the previous shows.

Libertine said, "We're already using all possible exhibit space, but we do have a couple new activities we hope to squeeze into the events schedule. These include a duck-calling contest, sponsored by Ducks Unlimited, Inc. and a fly-tying contest, sponsored by Trout Unlimited, Inc.

"As usual, this will be a complete sports and outdoor show. Exhibitors come from throughout the United States and Canada to display the latest in hunting and fishing equipment, recreational vehicles, camping and backpacking gear," he said.

Boats and marine products will again have their own display areas and numerous hunting lodges will be represented.

Special events scheduled so far include a week-long archery tournament; duck decoy carving and painting competitions; the sixth annual turkey-calling contest; fishing clinics; the spectacular stage-and-water show and a championship BB Gun Match, featuring school-age sharpshooters from various parts of the Commonwealth.

Hours for the Eastern Sports and Outdoor Show are: February 2, 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.; February 3, Noon to 7 p.m.; February through February 8, Noon to 10 p.m.; February 9, 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Corn refiners elect new directors

WASHINGTON — Gerald M. Mitchell, corporate vice president and head of the milling division of Cargill, Incorporated, was elected chairman of the Board of Directors of the Corn Refiners Association, Inc., at their annual meeting in Washington, D.C.

Leonard T. Lewis, president of Clinton Corn Processing Company, was elected as the Association's vice chairman at the recently concluded meeting.

Mitchell has held a variety of marketing and management positions with Cargill since joining the company in 1952. Mitchell was named an assistant vice president in 1964, and a corporate vice president in 1973.

Vice Chairman Leonard T. Lewis has served in numerous operating and management positions with Clinton Corn Processing Company since joining the company as a chemical engineer in 1951.

He became production manager in 1968, vice president for production in 1972, senior vice president for operations in 1974, and was named president of the company in 1976.

Clinton Corn Processing Company is a division of Standard Brands Incorporated.
