

Farm Show

Chris Chubb and Henry Westenberger, both of Middletown, cautiously touch a three year old cow. Chris explained that he always touches the cows on the side because he doesn't like to get kicked.

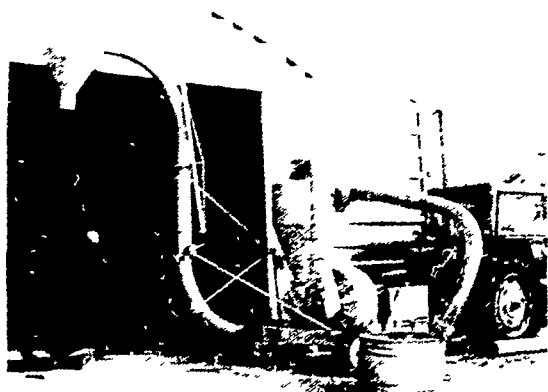

Everyone had all eyes on the Yorkshire gilt giving birth to her first litter. The gilt is owned by Charles B. Hall of Rattlesnake Mt. Farm, Julia, Pa. An intente listener could hear children say, "they're cute", "oh boy", or "there another just popped out." The sow gave birth to seven piglets within two hours. She had no complications and was oblivious to her many onlookers.

ASGROW A4268 SOYBEANS OUTYIELD Miles by 4.6 bu/acre and Kent by 6.2 bu/acre!

IVAN GARRISON of Elmer, New Jersey

"I recommend Asgrow A4268 to whomever is looking for a better bean than either Kent or Miles."

Here's why:

Mr. Garrison planted 5 acres each of A4268, Miles, and Kent side by side under the same field and growing conditions. Mr. Garrison reports that Asgrow A4268 filled his bin with only 26 rows after combining, while it took 29 rows for Miles and 30 for Kent to fill them. A4268 stood almost totally erect while the others were over badly. A4268 delivered 4.6 bu/acre more beans than Miles, and 6.2 bu/acre more than Kent.
