BERNVILLE, Pa. — Members of the Virginville 4-H Dairy Club took home the majority of the awards presented last Friday at the Berks County 4-H Dairy Banquet held at the Bernville Grange Hall, here.

Awards were presented to individuals for county project books and blue forms in six age group categories. Of these twelve awards, Virginville 4-H Dairy Club members received a total of seven. The project books were judged on records, neatness, story and participation of the 4-H members submitting them. Criteria for selection of Blue Form winners included involvement in 4-H clubs, number of projects taken, leadership, county and state 4-H activities and the member's 4-H story.

Winning the project book contest were: 8-9 year olds - Michele Christman - Northern Berks 4-H Club; 10-11 year olds - Ginger Dietrich, Virginville; 12-13 year olds - Kari Bitting, Virginville; 14-15 year olds - Todd Miller, Virginville; 16-17 year olds - Gary Kurtz, Eastern Berks; 18-19 year olds - Cheryl Adam, Virginville.

Blue Form Winners were: 8-9 year olds - Brian Blatt, Virginville; 10-11 year olds - Tammy Miller, Virginville; 12-13 year olds - Patty Dreisbach, Northern Berks; 14-15 year olds - Connie Ohlinger, Northern Berks; 16-17 year olds - Allan Rohrbach, Virginville; 18-19 year olds - Karen Sattazahn, Stouchsburg.

Highlighting the evening was a dairy bowl contest in which four members from each club participated. Winning the contest was Northern Berks while Eastern Berks took second place.
