

Photo highlights of state calf show

The first calf brought into the ring brings the second highest price of the day-long sale, $5,300. Purchased by Marlin G. Bricker, Chambersburg, the calf, Peters Farm Kingpin Mist, was consigned by Emil G. Peters, Port Matilda.

A new record individual price $7100 was paid for Lucinda Sunny Craft Chief, consigned by Earl C. Stauffer & Associates, Ephrata. She was purchased by Brad Bouma, McFarland, Calif.

Combination of curious on-lookers and interested bidders concentrate their attention on the Small Arena in Farm Show Building as a day-long steady flow of Holstein calves is offered for sale.
