

Junior Cooking Edition

This week we're offering our young cooks some tempting recipes for after school.

Lots of thinking makes kids plenty hungry, and mom is often busy finishing her day's chores when the kids get home, so here are some delicious combinations juniors can make all by themselves.

Our Junior Cooking files are running low again. We'd like to print some of your favorite recipes, so why not send them today to: Junior Cooking, LANCASTER FARMING, P.O. Box 366, Lititz, PA 17543. Be sure to include complete instructions with the recipe and your full mailing address and age. THANKS!

CRANBERRY SCOOP

Place a scoop of vanilla ice cream in the bottom of each glass. Fill the glass with cranberry juice. Stir until the ice cream is slightly melted.

BANANA ORANGE DELIGHT

1 banana, broken up
½ cup orange juice
½ cup cold milk
1 cup orange sherbet

Put all the ingredients into a blender container and blend on high speed until smooth and frothy. Turn blender off and pour into glasses.

Lancaster Farming, Saturday, April 12, 1980—C5

GRAPE FLOAT

2 scoops vanilla ice cream
1 cup grape juice
1 bottle or can of grape soda

Put a scoop of ice cream in each glass. Add ½ the grape juice. Stir and fill with grape soda. Serves 2.

NUTS AND BOLTS

1 cup corn puffs
1 cup Cheerios
1 cup pretzel sticks
½ cup shelled peanuts
3 tablespoons butter
¼ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
dash of garlic and celery salt if desired

In a large baking pan, spread the cereal, peanuts and pretzel sticks. Melt the butter in a small saucepan over low heat. Add seasonings. Pour butter mixture over the cereals. Bake 30 minutes in a 250° F. oven.

GOOEY APPLES

Wash and slice an apple. Spread each slice with peanut butter. If desired, the apple can be stuck back together. Serve.

EASY EGG SALAD

Peel a hard-cooked egg. In a bowl, mash the egg with a fork. Add a teaspoon of mayonnaise and a dash of salt and pepper. Spread between crackers and enjoy.

ICE CREAM SANDWICHES

Allow your favorite flavor of ice cream to soften slightly. Spread it between 2 graham crackers. Don't forget to put the ice cream back in the freezer!

NUTTY BANANAS

For each person, peel one banana half-way. Spread the peeled end with a light coating of peanut butter. Dip in crushed cereal or chopped peanuts.

NO BAKE COOKIES

1 cup peanut butter
1 cup Captain Crunch cereal
½ cup cookie crumbs (crushed chocolate cookies)
¼ cup coconut

Mix all together with your hands and roll into small balls.

Firm offers scholarship

NEWARK, Del. — The Draper-King Cole company in Milton has offered to sponsor a $500 agricultural scholarship at the University of Delaware to be awarded to an incoming freshman interested in majoring in either animal husbandry, soil or plant science.

In announcing the new scholarship, Donald F. Crossan, dean of the College of Agriculture Sciences, noted the importance of agriculture as an industry in Delaware. He expressed appreciation to Harry Bonk, president of Draper-King Cole, Inc., for his generous support of the college's teaching program. "In giving this scholarship," he said, "your company is asking young Delawareans to take advantage of the opportunity to become a part of this valuable sector in the state's economy."

Candidates for the scholarship may be nominated by their high school principal, guidance officer, or science teacher. They may also apply themselves. A letter of application is required. Selection will be based on overall academic merit and achievement in science courses. The scholarship is restricted to Delaware residents. Financial aid will be a secondary consideration.
