

COAL-WOOD ADD-ON FURNACE

- BAFFELED
- FORCED DRAFT
- DUMP GRATES
- ENAMEL FINISH
- HONEYWELL CONTROLS

WOOD HEAT

Rt. 212, Pleasant Valley
Quakertown, Pa.

Open: Mon., Tues., Thurs. & Fri. 12 to 8;
Sat. 9 to 5; Sun. 1 to 5; Closed Wed.
Phone 215-346-7894

★ DEALER INQUIRIES INVITED ★

VISA 90 DAYS NO FINANCING CHG FINANCING UP TO 30 MONTHS master charge

Curt Shreiner prepares for grilling in National Pork Cook Out King contest

BY RUTH ANN BENEDICT
Staff Correspondent

NEW FRANKLIN — "It is funny the way this whole thing happened" said Curt Shreiner, New Franklin, the 1979 PA Pork Cook Out King, with a grin. "It would never happen that way again."

Twenty-three year old Curt, along with his parents Robert and Ina, sister Amy, and grandparents David and

Cooking pork chops on this gas grill once a week is a regular thing for Curt Shreiner, new Franklin 1979 PA Pork Cook Out King, who is traveling to San Antonio, Texas, for the National Pork Cook Out King Contest on April 24-26. Says Curt, "I have to keep in practice."

Goldie Reichard of Shady Grove, will be traveling to San Antonio, Texas, April 24-26, for the National Pork Cook Out Contest held annually by the National Pork Association. In San Antonio, Curt will compete against 22 other State Pork Cook Out Kings for the national title.

It all began last August at the Franklin County Fair stated Curt. "My mother was the main instigator of the whole deal, She found out about the contest and wanted my grandfather to get in it. He would have nothing to do with it.

"Then she asked me. I never said yes to her and still haven't said yes to that first contest. She came home after working with the baked goods at the Fair and told me she had entered me in the contest. I figured that she would forget about it so I didn't say much. But as the contest got nearer she started getting me ready and I knew she was serious.

"The night of the contest it rained. Water ran down through the tent and it was the first time that I had ever used a gas grill and that made me nervous. "My pork chops looked all brown and shriveled. When they announced the second place winner I started to clean up my things, figuring that I didn't win. Then they announced the winner and it was me. I turned around and said 'what'. I just couldn't believe it.

"I use a curried smoked pork chop recipe and I realized later that the curry tends to make the meat brown anyway."

Winning the Franklin County Contest made Curt eligible for the state contest held during the Adams County Apple Festival at the South Mountain Fairgrounds in Arendtsville last October. It also rained during this contest.

Despite the rain, Curt Shreiner became the 1979 PA Pork Cook Out King. And ever since then, Curt says he has been giving pork cooking demonstrations at the shopping malls in the surrounding areas.

"The South Central Region Pork Association has really been good to me. They sponsor my pork for my cooking demonstrations and C. Eugene Wingert, St. Thomas, books shopping malls for me on the weekends.

"Everyone wants to know where I get my inch thick pork chops. You can't buy them in a store they tell me." But Curt says you can find them if you look hard enough. All the meat that Curt uses comes from a local butcher shop in Chambersburg where the Shreiners have been dealing for years.

Cooking isn't quite as new to Curt as the contests. "We are an active family. I am always on the go, between my job as a bank teller, coaching little league, and playing

(Turn to Page C19)

For multi-purpose needs on a farm!

Morton Buildings are designed with modern farmers in mind. No matter what the need — a livestock barn that can be converted for hay or equipment storage in the off season — to a machine storage building that can provide extra space for a repair shop, an office or even grain storage to horse barns, stables and riding arenas that hold one or more animals and can also be equipped with box stalls, feed and tack rooms. Morton Buildings has just the right building and will tailor it to fit your specific needs. Plus, each building carries the strongest warranty written. If a total progressive operation is in your plans, contact the nearest Morton Sales Office (listed below) today!

Serving Central Pa and Maryland RD 4, Box 34A Gettysburg, PA 17325 Ph 717-334 2168	Serving Eastern Pa and New Jersey Box 126, Phillipsburg, NJ 08865 Ph 201-454-7900	Serving North Central Pa Area P O Box 937 State College, PA 16801 Ph 814-383-4355
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

MORTON BUILDINGS FIRST ON RANCH & FARM

Send information on Morton Buildings LF
Have your salesman phone for an appointment
Machine Sheds Free- Stall Barns
Horse Barns Stables Livestock Barns
Riding Arenas Grain Storage
Calving Barns Garages - Shops

Name _____
Address _____

Telephone _____
Ranche Farmer Businessman Teacher Student