band and the Garden Spot Performing Arts.

Sharon Elaine Witmer, 18, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Luke Witmer, 4580 Miller Drive, Mount Joy. Sharon is a senior at Lancaster Mennonite High School and will attend Eastern Mennonite College, majoring in home economics education and community development. "I want to work with people less privileged than we are and hope to work in a mission field in another country," she said. Sharon was yearbook editor, a member of the senior chorus and the ladies chorus.

The six agriculture scholarship recipients include:

Christian R. Herr, 18, is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Herr, Narvon R2. Christian is a senior at Garden Spot High School and will attend Penn State, majoring in agri-business.

Christian said, "I have lived on a farm all of my life and have been active in the vo-ag program. I know jobs are available and I have enjoyed working in ag business in summers." Herr has been a member of 4-H for nine years and says the highlight of his 4-H career was winning reserve champion at the Farm Show this year. Herr was captain of the track and soccer teams, is a member of student council, was FFA president and is vice-president of the Red Rose FFA chapter.

Daniel Lassahn, 17, Columbia R2, is a senior at Hempfield High School and will attend Penn State, where he will major in forestry. The son of The Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Lassahn, Jr., Daniel said he enjoys being outdoors and hopes to work in wildlife management on a state or national park. He is a member of the Bible Club at school.

Kelly Meloy, 316 Landis Avenue, Millersville, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.R. Meloy. A senior at Penn Manor High School, eighteen-year-old Kelly, will attend Penn State and major in horticulture, hoping to work in landscaping upon graduation. She is a member of the Key Club, the band, the tennis team and is secretary of the senior class.

Diane L. Miller, 17, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Miller, 604 Main Street, Akron. Now attending Ephrata High School, Diane will attend Penn State and major in environmental resource management. She said she is considered with the loss of farmland in Lancaster County and hopes to work in conservation after earning her B.S. and M.S. degrees. She is serving as president of Student Council and has been in track and field hockey for two years.

Lois Jean Wida, 18, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Wida, 1207 Orchard Road, Lititz. A senior at Warwick High School, she will attend the University of Delaware participating in their honors program, where she will major in animal science and pre-vet. She chose that major "mainly (Turn to Page A25)
