Schuylkill dairy food contest held

SCHUYLKILL HAVEN — Fifteen finalists in the dairy foods recipe contest brought their finished product to Boscov's Auditorium last Saturday for the final judging. Melva Spiece, chairman of the contest, reported that entries were good and a final decision was difficult to make.

The finalists were selected from many recipes entered by area residents, with 3 finalists being chosen from each category of the contest. Winners in the 5 categories were: appetizer snack - Fudgicles, Esther Breslin, Cressona; main dish casserole - Spaghetti Pie, Arlene Felty, Tamaqua; cakes and pies - Jimmy Carter Cake, Michelle Smeltz, Schuylkill Haven; cheesecake - Sharon's Cheesecake, Sharon Zerbe,

Pine Grove; and dessert - Summer Cool Salad, Dawn Spiece, Zion Grove.

Each winner received $10. From these 5 winners a grand prize winner was selected. This year's grand prize winner was Sharon

Zerbe, R1 Pine Grove, for her entry of Sharon's Cheesecake. Sharon received $25 for her efforts.

All recipes from the contest will be compiled in a booklet and distributed by the 1980 Dairy Princess.

You may not need your air conditioner

If you follow these tips to keep your home cool, you'll cut costs by keeping the heat out and the cool air in!

If you must use an air conditioner, don't overcool. Temperature settings should not be below 78 degrees in summer and the temperature difference between inside and out should be 15 degrees or less. Keep your unit properly serviced for better performance and economy. If you're buying a new unit, check the label for energy efficiency. It should have an efficiency rating of no less than 7.5 EER. The higher the EER rating, the less costly the appliance is to operate because of lower electricity consumption.
