

Homestead Notes

This summer Kathleen and her three youngest children went to the Passion Play and a tour of Germany, Switzerland and Austria. "The Passion Play was really the highlight of the whole thing. I also liked the window boxes and the clean gardens," she recalled. She said she and her daughter Heidi took their needlework along on the plane and found plenty of time to work on their projects. She even brought back a needlepoint kit from Europe.

Kathleen says she always has several projects going, and picks up "whatever suits my fancy. If I have a deadline I do that project first." She calls her projects "relaxing" for her, and says she braids rugs mostly in the winter.

Kathleen Denlinger's needlework offers her not only enjoyment, but also a sense of accomplishment. Her entries at the fair each year afford many people the opportunity to see and enjoy the work which brings her pleasure as she works on it and as she sees it go into homes in the community.

The Dauphin County Executive board met at the home of Clara Cuttman, Halifax.
