care and training contest winner. Sherre is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald W. Beal and a member of Fayette County 4-H Clubs for 4 years.

Franklin County

Gerald Reichard
Petroleum Power

Gerald Reichard, 18, of 6306 Buttermilk Road, Waynesboro, was named state winner in petroleum power.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald W. Reichard, he is a freshman at Delaware Valley College. He has been a 4-H member for nine years.

A member of the Spark Plugs 4-H club, he served as vice president. He also assisted with club activities and events as a teen leader.

The state petroleum power contest winner completed projects in gasoline engines, tractor maintenance, swine, teen leadership, and field crops.

Locally, Gerald took part in the exchange program, fair, roundup, achievement night, and leaders banquet.

He also participated in District 4-H Camp, Regional 4-H Teen Leaders Retreat, and Pennsylvania 4-H Leadership Congress.

Commenting on the values of the educational youth program, Gerald said: "4-H has given me an opportunity to meet people, share ideas, and develop leadership skills."

Jesse Richard Swine

The son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Reichard, 3920 Pump House Road, Waynesboro, Jesse is helping to operate a dairy farm. He was a swine contest winner. He has been a 4-H member for eight years.

A member of four Franklin County 4-H Clubs, Jesse served as president, treasurer, and teen leader.

The state swine contest winner completed projects in market swine, dairy, poultry, sweet corn, beef feeding, and teen leadership.

Locally, he took part in 4-H roundup, fair, day camp, achievement night, and officers training.

Jesse also participated in District 4-H Camp, Regional 4-H Teen Leaders Retreat, Farm Show, State 4-H Capital Days, and Pennsylvania 4-H Leadership Congress.

"Through 4-H projects, I have learned many skills that are helping me in the dairy business," said Jesse.

They are two of 41 Commonwealth 4-H members being selected as state contest winners in the various project categories.

Huntingdon County

Kimberly Chesney
Public Speaking

Kimberly Chesney, 17, Petersburg RD, who has compiled an outstanding record in 4-H work, was named state public speaking contest winner.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winston Chesney, she is a senior at the Juniata Valley High Schol. She has been a 4-H member for eight years.

A member of the Neffs Mills 4-H Club, she served as president, secretary, news reporter, treasurer, and song and game leader. She also assisted with club activities and events as a teen leader.

The state public speaking contest winner completed projects in public speaking, teen leadership, careers, sewing, cooking, crafts, photography, gardening, money management, and automotive.

Locally, she took part in the 4-H county day, leaders banquet, officers training, exchange program, demonstration contest, fair, and National 4-H Week celebration.

Kimberly also participated in the Cooperative Leadership Day, District 4-H
