FFA taps Ackley for American Farmer degree

EPHRATA — Charles E. Ackley, Jr., vocational agriculture teacher and FFA Advisor at Ephrata Area High School has been nominated to receive the FFA's Honorary American Farmer Degree.

Ackley was nominated for the Degree by the Pennsylvania FFA Association and the nomination was approved by the National FFA Board of Directors which recently met in Alexandria, Virginia. The Honorary American Farmer Degree is the highest honorary degree presented by the FFA.

This year 75 teachers of vocational agriculture were nominated to receive the degree during the National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Missouri, November 12-14.

Ackley has been a vocational agriculture teacher at Ephrata for 16 years. During that time he has had six students who earned the American Farmer Degree, 73 students who received the State Keystone Farmer Degree, 17 Pennsylvania Agriculture Proficiency Awards and numerous National Gold a teacher for his accomplishments as a vocational agriculture instructor, FFA Advisor, and as a participant in professional vocational agriculture teachers' organizations.

Teachers are awarded points for each student they supervised in earning state and national FFA awards. Teachers also receive points for serving as officers and committee members of the National Vocational Agriculture Teachers' Association and for their participation in national meetings of the FFA and other professional associations

Charles Ackley is one of four vocational agriculture teachers from Pennsylvania to be nominated for the Honorary American Farmer Degree this year.

He plans to attend the National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Missouri, on November 12-14 where he will be presented the degree pending final approval of the nomination by the student FFA delegates who must vote on all honorary presentations of the National FFA Organization.

The degree is presented during the Thursday afternoon session of the Convention.
