

No superstition in competition

HARRISBURG — You can't say that Symbol Acre Farm, of Leola, was superstitious in competing in the Penn National Horse Show in the Farm Show Building this week.

Total number of entries owned or stabled at the farm of Mr and Mrs. Robert Wentz, 155 Quarry Rd., was 13

Their first class of competition was the Open Five-Gaited Saddle Horse. There were 13 entries in the class.

But starting with that class, Symbol Acre started a string of second-place finishes in early competition on Tuesday. Red ribbons were won in the Open Five-Gaited, Open Three-Gaited Saddle Horse and Harness Pony - Limit.

Delta Queen, an eight-year-old chestnut mare with Beth Wentz up, finished in the runnerup spot in the field of 13 in the five-gaited competition.

The Queen took the reserve championship at Penn National last year and won two competitions this year. She placed first in the Beth Wentz, of Leola, with Delta Queen.
