In balloting for directors, Joe Wivell, Columbia R1, was re-elected. Also elected were Dale Peifer, Kirkwood; and D. Lamar Witmer, Manheim. In the re-organization of the board following the business meeting, Nathan Stoltzfus, Gap R2, was re-elected president and John Barley, Conestoga R2, was re-elected vice-president.

Greg Landis, Lancaster R6, was elected secretary, and Dale Peifer was elected treasurer.

State Director Robert H. Kauffman encouraged breeders to attend the Pennsylvania Holstein Convention to be held in February at the Pocono Manor and announced that the 1982 state convention will be hosted by the South Central District with headquarters to be at the Marriott located along Route 283, near Harrisburg.

Clarence Stauffer, consultant for the national association, told breeders to expect major changes as the association makes the switch to an 'area concept' with headquarters for the local area to be in Linglestown north of Harrisburg. He said there will be 12 classifiers and seven consultants working out of the area office, and said that calls to consultants will be channeled through that office, which will cover a 15-state area.

A major change will be in the classification program with classifiers working five days a week and being home on weekends. Stauffer announced that classification in Lancaster County will be done alone, and will be
