Women honored at Grange meeting

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia. — Hundreds of Grange members from all across the country attended a banquet at the Stouffer's Five Seasons Hotel to honor the achievements of Grange women during the past year. The Grange is holding its 114th annual session in Cedar Rapids this week.

Mrs. Mary Buffington of Chadds Ford, Pennsylvania, Director of Women's Activities, described the results of this year's participation in women's activities as "overwhelming." Nearly a quarter of a million women belong to the Grange. It has long been known as the first organization in the country to give women an equal vote with men, when it was first organized in 1867.

Mrs. Marie Thelen of St. Johns, Michigan, was selected State Grange Director of the Year. Mrs. Thelen is also a member of the National Grange's Women's Activities Advisory Committee.

Mrs. Leslie Rivard, Gaines, Michigan, took Best of Show honors in the National Grange sewing contest and was awarded $1000 plus additional prizes from co-sponsors of the contest.

Grand Award winners of the needlework contest were Alice Briggs, Milford, New Hampshire, Irene Lewerer, Stillwater, Minnesota, and Mrs. C.W. Davis Jr., West Chester, Pennsylvania.

National winners of the stuffed toy contest were Beth Pease, Manlius, New York, Kim Hulsey, New Matamoras, Ohio, Raymond Comstock, S. Meriden, Connecticut, and Karla Frock, Boulder, Colorado.

Ocean Spray Cranberries, Inc. recognized Mrs. Helen Lacinia of Grinnell, Iowa, as Grand Prize Winner in their national cranberry recipe contest.

Mrs. Norma Jean King of Seymour, Tennessee, took top honors in the sewing machine craft and home decoration contest and was awarded a trip for two to Switzerland by the White Sewing Machine Company.
