

Ephrata man to serve as Commission president

EPHRATA — Robert E. Fasnacht of Ephrata has been named president of the Pennsylvania Game Commission for another year. He had served as president of the agency in 1980. Fasnacht, who has been a member of the commission since 1965, previously served as president of the eight-member group from 1969 until 1971. He was vice president of the commission in 1978 and 1979. The new vice president of the

the new secretary of the Game Commission. Craul, who also became a member of the commission in 1980, succeeds Elmer M. Rinehart of Stroudsburg.

THE SOONER YOU SEE US ABOUT A BROCK BIN — THE MORE YOU SAVE

You can get the biggest savings you'll be able to get all winter by acting now — next month the discount will be less. If you've been thinking about getting more control over your grain marketing, now's the time to start by checking our BROCK grain bin prices. And let us tell you why a BROCK is your best bin choice, too . . .

"50 REASONS WHY BROCK SHOULD BE YOUR BIN"

We have a great slide/sound presentation explaining 50 outstanding BROCK quality and convenience features available with BROCK bins. You'll see why BROCK is the favorite bin among many of the better, more profit-oriented grain farmers. The presentation is free, of course.
