Tumbler wins state apple recipe contest

HARRISBURG — Mrs. George Tombler Jr., of Easton took top honors in the Pennsylvania Apple Recipe Contest with her recipe "Three Apple Mold Salad," according to State Agriculture Secretary Penrose Hallowell.

Ten finalists, chosen from over 220 entries from across the state, traveled to Hershey to compete in the contest, sponsored by the Pennsylvania Apple Marketing Board, in cooperation with the state Department of Agriculture.

Hallowell said, "Mrs Tombler's recipe, which won her the $200 first prize, was judged best overall for ease of preparation, economy, appeal, taste and appearance."

Judges for the contest were William Trautman, assistant food and beverage manager for the Hershey Convention Center, Marsha Hadjuk, director of standards for Dutch Pantry restaurants; and Betty Rode, home economist, Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture.

Other winners were Joan R. Brumgard of Hanover, York County, who received $150 for her second place entry, "Barbecued Chicken." Another York County finalist, Joyce McMaster Moul of York Haven, placed third in the competition, receiving $100, with her recipe, "Scalloped Sweet Potatoes and Applesauce." Sue Arner of Freeport, Armonstrong County won fourth place and $75 with her entry, "Best Applesauce Cake."

The six remaining finalists were named runners-up in the contest and received $50 each. They were Dorothy L. Johnson of Downingtown, making "Holiday Baked Apples", Eleanor Campbell of Sayre, making "Apple Pudding Dessert"; Peggy Leasock of Rockwood, making "Applesauce Meat Balls," Charles Whittington of Carlisle, making "Apple Cider N' Sauce Cookies"; Joan Wright of Newport, making, "My Apple Pie;" and Margaret Albert of Latrobe, making, "Christmas Fruit Cake."

The ten winning recipes, in which apple cider, apple juice or applesauce must be an ingredient, will be compiled and published in a booklet to be distributed throughout the state this fall during the next apple harvest.
