

Md. Grange names new royalty

THURMONT, Md. — The Maryland State Grange announced that two Frederick County Youth will be serving as Grange Royalty for 1981.

Princess Andrea Myers of Thurmont Grange and Prince Scott Wiles of Glade Valley Grange in Walkersville will be representing the State Grange at various banquets, conferences and affairs throughout their reign.

Myers and Wiles will be attending the 115th National Grange Session next November in Spokane, Washington and will be competing for national titles.

Scott A Wiles, 16, is the son of Mr & Mrs Maurice Wiles of Walkersville. Scott has been a member of Glade Valley Grange 2½ years and was a charter member of Glade Valley Junior Grange.

Scott served as Junior Master in 1978 and Maryland State Junior Grange Prince. He was recently elected Assistant Steward of Glade Valley Grange for the third consecutive year.

He is co-youth chairman of his local grange and is also on the cemetery, safety and community show committees. Scott has served as Pomona (county) and state youth officers. Scott has attended several National Grange sessions also.

Wiles, a junior at Walkersville High School, has been very active in the Walkersville Future Farmers of America Chapter. He is currently holding the office of Chaplain.

Wiles is a member of the Walkersville United Methodist Church and is employed on the family dairy farm.

Myers has been a member of the Thurmont Grange for three years and was a charter member of the Junior Grange for six years. She has served the office of Flora and has been serving on the Fair Booth committee and Degree Team for several years. Myers was also the second Maryland Junior Grange Princess in 1978 and has attended National Grange Sessions in Greensboro, North Carolina, and Lancaster, Pennsylvania. She has been a state and national winner in the Grange banner and art contests.

Myers was also a member of the Catocin FFA Chapter for four years and served as chapter reporter for two years.

Andrea is a 1980 graduate of Catocin High School where she served as class secretary in her sophomore and senior years.

Myers was also a member of the grievance panel for three years, photography club for one year and listed among Who's Who Among American High School Students.

Myers is employed as an insurance secretary by R.W. Boyer Agency, Inc., 11 East Church Street in Frederick.

Prince Scott Wiler, Glade Valley Grange in Walkersville and Princess Andrea Myers of Thurmont Grange will be traveling to Washington in November to compete for national titles at the 115th National Grange session.

Tractor safety course set

NORRISTOWN — The Montgomery County Extension Service will offer a tractor safety certification course for area youth Under the Fair Labor Standards Act, all 14 or 15 year olds who plan to be employed off the home farm and will be involved in operating a tractor of over 20 PTO horse power, must have evidence of satisfactory completion of such a course before they can be employed.

The course will be held on April 7, 22, 28 and May 2 from 6 to 8 p.m. Classes will be held at the Western Montgomery Vo-Tech School in Limerick. The driving examination is scheduled for Saturday, May 9 from 9 a.m. to noon. Some previous experience is desired.

Although the course is geared to 14 & 15 year olds, anyone interested in learning about basic tractor safety is welcome to attend. To reserve a space in the class, call the 4-H Office of the Cooperative Extension Service, 277-0574. Cost of the annual is $2.50. Instructor will be Roger Michelone.
